Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Credit unions have demonstrated ably throughout the world for more than 125 years the ways people may act mutually to:

-- help others through cooperative and considerate thrift and -- help others through pooled resources and capabilities to provide credit and other financial services at reasonable, affordable rates self-determined;

-- to educate credit union members and the community in which they live of the values of financial planning and provident use of savings and loans;

-- develop more fully the human potential for self-improvement and self-development through cooperative actions; and

WHEREAS, Credit unions provide their communities with a resource for local investments and the continuity of capital circulation, which in turn benefits the regional, state, and national economies; and,

WHEREAS, Credit unions encourage the sense of cooperation and harmony which demonstrates how working for the common good voluntarily serves all involved individually; and,

WHEREAS, The full family of services provided members by their credit unions continues to grow and develop, as needs are turned into actions; and as the voluntary leadership of each credit union strives to build upon the solid and ~~safe~~ foundation created and maintained by dedicated pioneers:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 21, 1982, as in South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of October, In the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two
